

PMA's own Rodney Cumby Elected to Board of Canadian Association of Municipal Administrators

Rodney Cumby, Chief Administrative Officer for the Town of Paradise, and PMA Treasurer, has been elected to the Board of Directors for the Canadian Association of Municipal Administrators (CAMA). He was elected as the CAMA representative for Newfoundland and Labrador during the association's annual general meeting, held on June 2, 2015 at CAMA's national conference in Jasper, AB.

The association, which represents over 500 senior municipal administrators from across the country, promotes administrative excellence in the field of municipal management. Rodney replaces Keith Arns, who served as the CAMA board representative and association's treasurer before retiring as Chief Administrative Officer for the Town of Conception Bay South, NL in February 2015.

For fifteen years, Rodney has been an Executive Member of PMA which includes four years as President. He is a member of the TRIO Pension and Benefit Board, and a past Board member of the Municipal Assessment Agency.

About CAMA:

A Canada-wide network and the national voice of senior municipal administrators, the Canadian Association of Municipal Administrators (CAMA) strives to nurture and build municipal administrative excellence by providing its more than 500 members with knowledge sharing and learning opportunities, access to best practices, and valued input into policies and programs aimed at ensuring healthy and thriving communities across Canada. www.camacam.ca
